Dear Dolphin Families,

This week we continued celebrating halloween by making more jack o' lanterns out of coffee filters, creating three different art projects using handprints, and we carved another pumpkin! This time it was a big yellow one!

We also explored the letter Ff, met our zoo phonics friend Francy Fish, talked about the number 8, and made discoveries about bats! The children enjoyed listening to more halloween theme stories such as We're going on a ghost hunt by Kris Hirschmann and Winnie the witch by Valerie Thomas.

Have a great weekend!

Love,
Your Dolphin Teachers
